Sonoma Wine: One Day Tasting Tour

By Matt Villano & Erica Duecy — November 2011

“Especially at this time of year—that is, harvest time—Sonoma County, California, is known predominantly for its wine. But especially in the northern part of the county, near the city of Healdsburg, there are plenty of other attractions. Our itinerary includes the best of the best: food, outdoor adventure, and, of course, wine. Follow our lead to satisfy all your senses.

Tasting at Dry Creek Vineyard

Owned by the same family since 1972, Dry Creek Vineyard was the first new winery in the Dry Creek Valley following prohibition. Today, in addition to a broad portfolio of wines, the place also boasts the best picnic garden in town.

Tip: Ask to try the special Cuvée, which Dry Creek makes exclusively to be served at the annual Screen Actors Guild Awards® show.”
