

DCV10 CHARDONNAY

2006 DCV10 CHARDONNAY – Russian River Valley

WINE ENTHUSIAST May 2009	92 Points - Dry Creek Vineyard turns to the cooler Russian River Valley to source this deliciously crisp Chardonnay. It has spicy flavors of baked green apples, pineapple jam, butterscotch, vanilla and wonderfully exotic figs. Low alcohol gives it perfect balance.
CALIFORNIA GRAPEVINE December 2008 – January 2009	“Highly Recommended!” - Medium-light golden yellow; attractive, forward, herbal, toasty, slightly tropical, ripe pear and apple aroma with hints of honeysuckle and juniper; full body; forward, rich, fleshy, apple and apricot flavors with a smooth mouthfeel.

2005 DCV10 CHARDONNAY – Russian River Valley

WINE SPECTATOR May 2008	87 Points - Clean and balanced, with spicy pear, melon and light cedary oak, keeping a tight focus on the fruit with light oak shadings.
------------------------------------	--

LAST UPDATE: APRIL 2012