★★★ - Three Stars - Cherry and damson nose. Ripe and juicy, concentrated but fresh, with light tannins. Lively and long.

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE TO CALIFORNIA WINE
January 2011

89 Points - Nicely crafted, genuinely juicy blackberryish fruit buttressed by suggestions of caramelly oak makes the early going here, and the wine follows on the palate with medium-full and slightly fleshy impressions. There is enough underlying acidity to keep the proceedings alive, but this one impresses as an open, drink now wine.
